

Programs of Studies

Auto Collision Repair

- Follow in the footsteps of Hot Rod icons by custom painting, fabricating and welding.
- Expose hidden talents outside of a traditional classroom.
- Work alongside an ASE Master Technician.

Automotive Technology

- Work on foreign and domestic cars, trucks, and hybrid vehicles in a high-tech precision industry.
- Use the same advanced diagnostic and repair equipment as industry professionals.
- Maintain, repair, and fine-tune a wide range of vehicle engines with an ASE Technician.

Building Construction

- Training in residential and light commercial building techniques.
- Estimating building cost, carpentry, cabinetmaking, residential wiring, blueprint reading, brick masonry, construction, building codes, and safety.
- Training enhanced through multiple hands on projects.

Cosmetology

- A world of beauty, glitz, and glamour awaits students interested in the beauty industry.
- Create art that walks around for the world to see using the latest trends and techniques.
- Work alongside professionals in a full-service, interactive salon.

Programs of Studies

Culinary Arts Management

- The whoosh of the gas igniting, the cold steel of the blade in your hand, the rush of throwing food in the air with precision, catching it mid flip while grilling at the same time all to achieve the perfect plate.
- Countless hours spent as a team sweating, hustling, creating, communicating, and competing without words, all to create memorable moments for others.
- Gain skills to travel the world, experience cultures and make your mark with what is already inside you.

Engineering

- Learn the science and technology behind the design and building of structures, engines, and machines.
- Work with high-tech, industry-based software to design projects.
- Document processes using engineering practices.
- Create solutions to complex problems.

Nail Technology

- Use advanced salon techniques to provide a full range of nail and skincare services.
- Create artistic designs using the latest trends and brand name products.
- Work alongside professionals in an interactive salon.

Practical Nursing (Seniors Only)

- Nursing is not a job; it's a way of life.
- Gain the necessary practical skills to become a licensed professional.
- Work alongside registered nurses, physicians, and other clinical professionals.
- Must meet admission testing requirements.

Programs of Studies

Machine Tooling (Dual Credit Course)

- This certificate provides and individual with the basic skills for manual machine operation including: safety, tooling, set up, speeds and feeds, materials, print reading, and precision measurement. The student will focus learning activities on engine lathes and milling machines. Certificate completers will be prepared for entry level machine tool positions in manufacturing and service businesses.

Health Science

- Health Science 1 is an introductory class, designed to expose the student to the world of health care with an emphasis on wellness.
- Students will study the ever growing and changing healthcare professions in the U.S. and how it relates to our lives.
- Students will explore different health careers, job safety, wellness, medical terminology, and acquire skills related to health careers.

Teacher Cadet

- CERRA offered through Francis Marion University, students learn what it takes to become a teacher.
- Onsite classroom visits with students in an area of student choice.
- Dual Credit and Scholarships are available.

Firefighter I and Firefighter II Course

- This program will include First Aid & CPR, Firefighter I, Hazardous Materials Awareness, Hazardous Materials Operations, Firefighter II, and Basic Auto Extrication