We Are Marion County! Educate • Prepare • Inspire

Superintendent’s General Information:
Happy New Year and Happy Board Appreciation Month!

Please review the attached:
- One page Audit Summary Sheet for your reference (Talking Points)
- 2018 State Report Card Memo

Board members should have received several pieces of information that was requested during the December 2018. Please check your emails. Included was a copy of Dr. Richardson’s Policy Presentation. Please review and make notes on any policies that you desire to discuss in further detail.

Human Resources:
Personnel planning is underway for our 2019-2020 school year. Letters of Intent have been distributed to all staff members to be returned to the Office of Human Resources by the end of the third week in January. This will allow us to determine certified vacancies early and begin hiring for next school year.

Curriculum:
End of Course Examinations for 1st semester will be administered to all assigned students in MCSD as follows:
- English 1 (Writing)---------Thursday, January 10
- Algebra 1-----------------Tuesday, January 15
- English 1 (Reading)-------Wednesday, January 16
- USHC--------------------Thursday, January 17
- Biology 1----------------Friday, January 18

2nd Quarter Exams and Common Assessments will be administered to students in MCSD on January 22, 23, and 24.

Student Services: The Discipline Task Force met on December 9th to begin discussion of possible revisions to the Code of Conduct and to identify Board policies pertaining to students (section J) for updates/revisions.

Public Relations: Public Relations & Special Projects is gearing up for the second half of the year. Looking forward to meeting with our legislative delegation to discuss our district’s needs for the upcoming session in Columbia. Also working with our E3 Project Coach on providing a summary of the first year of the grant, winding down year two and setting the stage up for year 3.

Special Services: As the next semester begins, teachers will be resending all accommodations and behavior intervention plans to general education teachers. Also, administrators and special services teachers will begin meeting this month for matriculation meetings where sending and receiving schools discuss students being moved to them.
