The Media Center

The media center at Johnakin Middle School welcomes you whenever you visit. With more than 12,000 books listed in the online catalog, and Internet Access on thirteen desktop computers, and a tech lab for class use, we are ready to help you find the information you need. Be sure to check out the links on our web page! Visit the media center often. It's a great place to be.

Rules

Hours: 7:30-3:30

Class Visits: Language arts teachers schedule a 30-minute block of time every other week for book checkout. Longer periods are scheduled for reference work.

Small Group Visits: Students may come from class in small groups of six or fewer with a written pass.

Individual Visits: Students may come during school with a written pass from their teacher and during lunch (no pass required).

Making Copies: To make a copy in the media center, it must be school related (black and white).

Book Checkout

The student ID card is required for book checkout.

Students may check out three books at a time. Exceptions can be made for research assignments.

The loan period is 10 school days.

There is an overdue book fine of 5 cents per day.

We will send overdue notices to homeroom teachers once a month.

Rules for ID Cards

ID pictures will be taken during the day, and at their lunch time.

Students must have ID to check out books.
